HORSE SHOES

Ask the User

Even a cheap tire looks good when it is new.

Few experts can tell how good they really are, but the man who has given them the "acid test" of a year's use "knows."

That's the test we should like to have you put Horse-Shoe tires to.

Ask the driver of a Horse-Shoe equipped car how good they really are and then see us.

FRUITLAND BENCH NEWS

Fruitland People Are Busy This Week Attending Chautauqua And Putting Up Hay

Miss Elizabeth Berg came home from Salem, Oregon where she has been attending for the past two years school at Willamette University. Dr. Alan Anderson, Mr. Lewis Russell, and Miss Esther Russell accompanied Miss Florence Anderson Sunday to her home at Parma. She had come up Saturday to be the guests of Miss Russell and Mrs. Leuck.

There were about five hundred present Wednesday evening of last week to eat ice cream and cake served by the Fruitland Association in appreciation of the aid given the night the depot burned to prevent the Association building from burning. The Ontario orchestra came over accompanied by about 150 Ontario citizens. Fifty gallons of ice cream were provided.

Mrs. Lulu Dena was over on Sand Hollow spending a week at her home. Mrs. Arlina Bollinger is home from Manchester, Indiana where she has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Bossen and family were in Parma Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Grover and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dalzell and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dalzell motored to Parma Sunday afternoon to see the new Community church and the new gymnasium.

At a meeting of the school board last week to determine whether or not they would hold another election to vote bonds for building a school house there were only five members present, three voting for and two against, Mr. Strawn being absent, and a two thirds vote was necessary in order to carry.

Miss Winifred Bossen was visiting the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wells. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bossen were guests there for Sunday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Darnall, of Emmett, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Culyver, being a former resident here, were week end guests at the Darnall home.

Miss Anna Pearson spent the week end at the Schmid home. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Creger leave this week for Colorado for a visit with relatives.

Sunday a large dinner party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hollenbeck, in honor of Miss Mary Hollenbeck and Mrs. Ida Kirkman who had returned early Sunday morning from Los Angeles where Miss Hollenbeck has been attending the southern branch of Berkeley University. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith and family, Mrs. C. W. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Rich and two daughters, Mr. Ray Rich and Mr. Cecil Rich.

Thursday, the 17th Miss Gladys

Melcher was ten years old and her grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Pathel entertained her little friends in her honor. The guests had a happy time and enjoyed good eats after the fun was over.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hurst and two daughters were in Boise for two days last week, Thursday and Friday. Remember the Friendship W. C. T. U. meeting at Mrs. R. S. Kutch's June 30th, the date having been changed from the 24th.

Frank Kinnison and Lewster Hooker and George Stevens are in Adrian, Idaho assisting in the putting up of hay.

Miss Lucille Hill entertained about 40 at her home on Riverside Avenue near Fruitland Thursday evening. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Eva Blomstrom was out from Payette, the guest of Miss Bernice Hill for the week end.
